

PLEASE READ BEFORE YOU ORDER SCRIPTS!

Q. We hate filling out forms. Can't we just call you?

A. We prefer to have it in writing, but yes you can call. We'll need the same info as on the form.

Q. We want to make photocopies of the individual scripts we order. Can we?

A. Nope. You may NOT photocopy scripts without explicit permission from Mysteries by Moushey, Inc. Period.

Q. If we order individual scripts to read, are we committed to producing?

A. Nope. You can add them to your script library or give 'em away or use them to barter for beads and trinkets, but you DO NOT have to produce.

Q. Can we skip the ordering-individual-scripts-to-read thing and go straight to the production order?

A. Yeah. But remember if you do that, ALL SCRIPT SALES ARE FINAL and you will have to pay for at least one performance royalty. You gotta pay to play.

Q. How about if we decide to produce and order production materials and additional scripts. THEN, can we photocopy?

A. Well, then you can photocopy SCENES to use for auditions. In fact, we recommend that you do this, rather than using the entire script. That way those who aren't cast won't be able to read the ending.

Q. What if I read the scripts and they don't work for me. Can I send 'em back for a refund?

A. Nope. All script sales are final.

Q. What if I order scripts for a production and it doesn't happen. Can I return those scripts?

A. Sigh. Let's try this again. ALL. SCRIPT. SALES. ARE. FINAL.

Q. Can we order scripts and be billed for 'em?

A. Sadly, not any more. Let's just say that a few people ruined it for everyone (I have a little list.)

Q. You mean ALL orders hafta be prepaid? But we've ordered from you for years!

A. Okay, okay. . .I'm such a softie. IF YOU HAVE ALREADY PRODUCED ONE OF OUR SHOWS AND ARE IN GOOD STANDING (i.e. you paid us promptly) WE WILL FILL YOUR ORDER AND SEND A BILL.

Q. What kind of payment do you take?

A. You can mail the form and send a check. You can provide a Mastercard or Visa number. Or, if your school or organization uses Purchase Orders, we'll take that.

Q. I love the script but before committing to a production, I wondered if we could change the gender of half the characters and we'd like to take out a few lines and maybe add some aliens and. . .

A. Aughhhh! Stop right there. If you need to make changes, don't worry! We readily give permission to make script changes, including titles. You must, however, secure this permission ahead of time. We'll need the new title, but changes within the script don't need to be specifically listed.

Q. Are you going to give any of my info to that banker in Nigeria who wants to go halves on this great scheme he's got?

A. Nah. Information provided to us will NOT be sold or otherwise disseminated to anyone else. We use your email addy for correspondence and this cute li'l newsletter we send out a few times a year. That's how we let you know about new scripts and free shipping offers and contests and stuff like that. And you can opt out of the newsletter anytime.

Q. How long does it take to get our order?

A. Most times we do a 1 or 2 day turnaround. Only time it takes longer is if a script is at the printers or I'm in Vegas.

Q. Do you take francs, Euros, or kruggerands?

A. Nope. All prices are USD. Contact us for non-US transactions.

Q. How about shipping out of the continental U.S.?

A. Sure. But we'll have to let you know the charges
